Keynote Speakers:

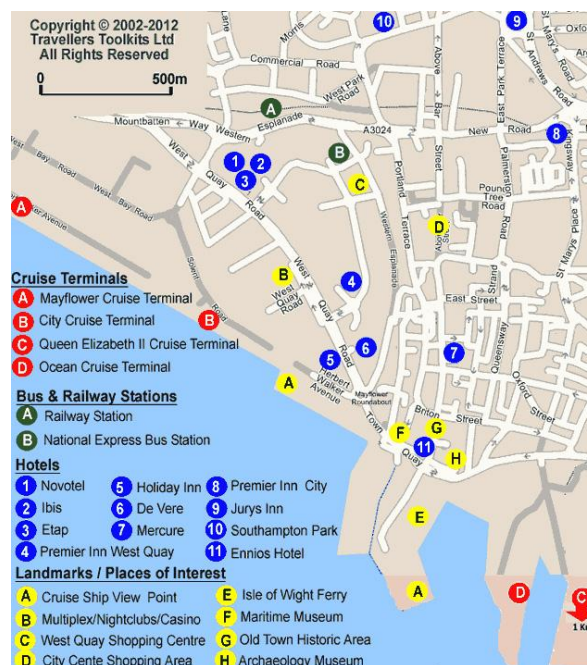

- Peter Jakob is a Consultant Clinical Psychologist and Family Therapist who introduced Nonviolent Resistance to the UK and is a leading NVR trainer, writer and national and international presenter on NVR.
- Julia Jude is a lecturer at London, Goldsmiths University. A visiting lecturer at University of Bedfordshire, a systemic and group psychotherapist, supervisor, researcher, author and co-director of a community NVR project.
- Elizabeth Day is a systemic psychotherapist, an artist, a writer, a supervisor and an educator. She established the first NVR group programme in partnership with colleagues in Oxleas NHS Foundation Trust. She and Elisabeth Heismann co-authored the NVR groupwork manual Non-violent Resistance Programme published by Pavilion in 2010.
- Elisabeth Heismann is a qualified teacher, systemic therapist, supervisor and trainer with over 10 years of NVR experience. Elisabeth developed and ran specialist NVR groups for parents whose children are in gangs or affected by Child Sexual Exploitation. Elisabeth is renowned for her special interest in parent participation in NVR.

*The ticket price includes tea and coffee and one year's membership of NVRUK.
Delegates are invited to stay for the NVRUK AGM which will take place at the end of the day immediately after the conference.*

The conference will be a valuable chance to connect with NVR practitioners, to gain information and resources at the forefront of NVR practice and to participate in creating paths for future NVR developments.

*This conference is aimed at anyone with an interest in NVR. For delegates new to NVR there will be a separate special introduction to NVR the day before the conference.
This twilight session can also be accessed as a standalone event (Further details to follow).*

*The venue is well-located for transport (see 1 on map below), a short walk from Southampton Central Train Station and Coach Station and 7/8 minutes by train from Southampton Airport.
There is free parking onsite for delegates on first come first served basis.*

Novotel is offering some rooms at special rates (£119 B&B) for delegates staying for one night. There are several other hotel options nearby (see map above).
